There is no "correct" answer. The answer you provide is a measure of creativity, not a statement of knowledge or fact. The question states that you were "put into" the blender. Assuming that you're not in some sort of factory setting (a kitchen is more likely) it's pretty safe to assume that a person has placed you in there.

If you were the moon, you would "spin like a twilight ballerina." Or, you would "hide in the shadows." It's difficult to choose a favorite, but among all the pages, I smiled a lot when I turned the page to "Catch and throw. Catch and throw." This creative line explains how the moon takes light from the sun and reflects it back to earth.
